DECATUR, ILLINOIS, Saturday Evening, Oct. 31.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For State Treasurer, THOMAS S. RIDGWAY, C. I. O. G. 10011111. For Superintendent of Public Instruction, WILLIAM B. POWELL, Of Kane. For Congress, 14th District, JOSEPH G. CANNON, Of Douglas.

LEGISLATIVE TICKET.

For Senator, KILBURN H. ROBY, Of Macon. For Representatives, EPHRAIM B. HARROLD, DR. JOHN H. TYLER, Of De Witt.

COUNTY TICKET.

For Sheriff, ISAAC D. JENNINGS. For Coroner, M. Y. GIVLER.

Come out and hear Hon. J. G. Cannon at the Court house to-night. The "consolidation" calls him a "6-pound smooth bore," but, according to its own caliber, it is a "6-pounder" of the short-horn candidate.

NEXT TUESDAY, elections, occur in twenty-four States. Eleven Congressmen are to be elected. Thirteen United States senatorships will be determined by the result of the legislative elections.

ALTHOUGH it is thought the woman suffrage proposition will be defeated in Michigan, it is conceded that it will receive a much larger vote than was at first anticipated. The friends of the measure are making a vigorous canvass.

FOUR of the Democratic candidates for Congress, in Illinois, were members of the Knights of the Golden Circle during the war. With a Democratic majority composed of ex-rebels and ex-knights, political reformation would soon be complete.

VOTE the straight Republican ticket on next Tuesday. Every man on it is worthy of your confidence and support.

Ephraim B. Harrold and Dr. John H. Tyler are honest, capable men, and sound Republicans, and in every way well qualified to represent us in the legislature and make our laws. Give them one and one-half votes apiece on next Tuesday.

BE on your guard for sham tickets and mixed ones. See that the names of all the Republican nominees are upon the ticket you vote. Remember Ridgway for State Treasurer; Powell for State Superintendent; Cannon for Congress; Harrold and Tyler for Representatives; Jennings for Sheriff; and Givler for Coroner, are the names on the Republican ticket.

AMONG all the false charges made against Hon. J. G. Cannon, our present representative to Congress, by the opposition, they seem to cling to but one and that is "grabber." It is a false charge, as Mr. Cannon was not a member of the congress that passed the salary grab, and did not take his seat as a member until the opening of the Forty-Third Congress; more than nine months after the grab bill was passed. What he did do, was to help to repeal the bill and make the salary as low as before the grab bill passed. To that end he voted, and worked, and spoke, and we challenge an iota of evidence to the contrary, and have no hesitation in saying, that he, who knowing the facts, calls Mr. Cannon a "Salary Grabber," wickedly, willfully, and deliberately utters that which is false.

A FULL VOTE NEEDED.

IT is useless to shed tears over the party defeat in Indiana and Ohio. A full party vote would have given us both the States named. Enough stayed at home, thinking their votes were not needed, to have given us the victory. The lesson taught is a good one; it will be a profitable one, it will open the eyes of our friends, to bring out every vote on the day of election. A full vote for our ticket means triumph; a three-fourths vote means defeat. Let our republican friends consider the results of a democratic victory and labor hard to prevent it. Thorough work will give us the victory. Let activity be the watchword until November 2.

THE "DEAD" ALIVE.

The New York World, the next day after the recent October elections, said: "The Democratic party which was 'dead' is alive again, with all its armor on." What that means every American knows who remembers the history of the last twenty years. Harper's Weekly, in commenting upon this expression made by the leading Democratic journal of the country, says: "The Democratic party, with all its armor on, means Tammany triumphant; possible repudiation; hatred of the negro; raids on the treasury for southern war claims of every kind; the extinction of hope of reform of the civil service; degrading reaction against the city and American spirit that sustains the war, a religious and defiant tone; renewed ecclesiastical efforts to overthrow the public school system; and a reopening of the claim of State sovereignty. It does not mean administration, economy, a purer civil service, a policy and more temperate foreign policy, a truer regard for equal rights, a steeper, a steeper maintenance of the war, progressive peace and prosperity. That such a restoration should be treated as even possible is a severe criticism of Republican conduct of the Government; and it is the plain and pressing duty of all honorable Republicans to make it impossible by voting only for honest and capable men of their own political faith, for such men alone can maintain the Union with freedom, intelligence and justice.

BRING THEM TO THE POLLS.

Let it be the aim of our Republican friends in each town to see that our full strength is pulled. Bring your neighbor to the polls. If he is old and infirm or if he doesn't care to leave his corral with his team to go to the polls, send a team after him and get him there. Let us have a full vote.

IT is reported from Washington that since the announcement of the result of the elections in Indiana and Ohio, there has been an active canvass by politicians, both Democratic and Republican of the probabilities of the remaining elections, especially for Congressmen. There is no attempt by Republicans to disguise the fact, we are told, that there is not a little danger of the Democrats securing the control of the next House of Representatives. There will be needed by the Democrats the gains to be made by defeating altogether fifty-three or fifty-four Representative districts now Republican. They have in the elections already held, gained sixteen, and a further gain of thirty-five, or certainly thirty six, will change the majority of the next House. The Democrats count on carrying all the districts in the South now represented by Republicans, except a few of those which are permanently and strongly Republican by reason of the preponderance of the colored vote. This would give them a further gain of twenty, at least. These anticipations, it is thought, are probably too great, but it is not unreasonable to concede them in the South a gain of fifteen. There will then be required a further gain of twenty, for which they must look largely to Pennsylvania and Illinois. Eight districts in Pennsylvania and five in Illinois, now Republican, are very close, and may possibly be carried by the Democrats. This leaves eight required to change the majority, which the Democrats expect to secure, from New York, two or three; Maryland, one; Delaware, one; California, one; Kansas, one; Wisconsin one and Michigan one. The Democratic politicians, it appears, look for a majority with great confidence. The Republicans concede that it will be close, but do not by any means concede that the House will be lost. Taking the States of Indiana and Ohio alone as a basis of calculation, the Democrats would win, but considering all the elections yet held, they would have to make a still greater ratio of gains. The moral of the calculations is that Republicans everywhere must go to the polls in the remaining elections and make victory sure by an exhibition of the full party strength.

THAT blundering old blacksmith who smashes grammar for the Decatur Magnet and Tribune, and who forges some of the most serious jokes ever committed to print, says the Gazette has been paid one thousand dollars to support the Republican nominee for Congress. Whether he offers this as another rare specimen of his wit, or as a sample of his ordinary, every-day lying, we are not yet informed. —Champaign Gazette.

WOULD YOU WIN?

Republicans, would you win in the coming election? Then go to work, actively and zealously, for our whole ticket. A half hour's talk with a lukewarm neighbor will often secure a vote for the Republican ticket which would otherwise be lost. We want to elect our whole ticket by a good rousing majority. We have got the votes to do it, and if Republicans will only see to it that they vote themselves, and that every other man who really favors our ticket votes it, the result is not doubtful. There are only a few days left. The work required is not hard nor the time for working long. Every republican, can, if he will, help on the good cause. Let us see to it that every officer on our ticket, from state treasurer to coroner, is elected over his opponent.

FROM MASSACHUSETTS.

UPON, Oct. 28, 1874. EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—I left your city on the 12 o'clock train on Monday, and was fortunate enough to find an old-time acquaintance for a conductor—one whom I had often heard was dead. Soon after taking a seat in the cars some one familiarly tapped me on the shoulder, when I immediately arose and took him by the hand, and gazed intently in his eye, and blandly remarked, "You have the advantage of me. What may I call your name?" "Ticket, sir," "Ticket, ticket," says I. "I want your ticket," said he. "Oh, yes," said I, and passed it over, when he said, in answer to my first question, "My name is Smith—John Smith." I again caught him by the hand, and eagerly inquired after Mrs. Smith and the children; told him I had not seen him for forty years, and that he looked younger than when I left N. H.; asked him how he had prospered; how the family were; if the children were grown; if he had any. He said, "Yes," and with a desperate effort tore himself away, and continued to gather up the tickets. Sometime later in the evening he came again, when I told him I had heard so many times that he was dead, that I was both surprised and delighted to meet him again; asked him how far we were from Decatur; who lived in that house, yonder; if anybody kept long-wooled sheep, or bantam or game chickens, and if he would stop the train when I came back long enough for me to buy a pen to take home with me? He said he would be very glad to accommodate me, but all the sheep and game fowls had been bought up and sent to Montreal, and he thought I had better return by that route. I thanked him and said I would. He appeared very anxious to leave, but I detained him. I asked him how far we were from Lafayette; if he thought we would be likely to have a smash-up. He said he always liked to please his old friends, and if I wished, he would go forward on the cow-catcher and pull up a rail. I told him I wished he would, as I had never seen one, and had an accident ticket, I would be all right, for my wife would be sure of that in case I got smashed up (which probably would be perfectly satisfactory to her).

Just at this time, a good-looking young lady came along, and after a few moments conversation with him, he said to me that Mrs. Smith had got aboard the train after he had f. bidden her, and he was going ahead to throw her off the train, and then he would attend to my case; but as he did not again make his appearance I fear one of three things happened to him, either his wife threw him off, or he fell off while trying to take up a rail, or what is more likely (for John always was a sly dog), he took the young lady and left the train. I feel very anxious about it, and I wish you would enquire and let me know.

I shall proceed directly to Montreal and invest a few dollars in sheep and send them to Capt. Jack, to enable him to "pull the wool" over the eyes of the Republican grangers, and a few bantam cocks to Tommy Lee, to crow over Shaw Passé and for a Democratic victory. And as I am sure Breastplate can, with one horn, spike the Douglas canon Cannon, I will be content to "Wait for the wagon." J.

An Expert.—Dr. Price is well known as an expert in the study of Gullinay Chemistry, and all of the manufacturers of Steele & Price are the result of his researches. One of these discoveries is the Cream Baking Powder, by the use of which light, sweet biscuits, cake, &c., at all times are a certainty. The market is flooded with cheap inferior baking powders, and adulteration is so extensively practiced, that the Cream Baking Powder does the work with two-thirds of the quantity required of any other kind. In view of such cheap imitations, the public are advised to ask for these pure and excellent articles, if they cannot be obtained of one grocer may be of another. The purer the articles that compose our daily food the better food they are for health. Dr. Price's True Flavoring Extracts are really delicious. 24-1000 W

Jos. Medill to go Back to the Chicago Tribune. AND IT IS TO BE AN INDEPENDENT REPUBLICAN PAPER.

HORACE WHITE TO GO TO EUROPE.

Forest Fires in Ohio and Indiana.

More Third Term News.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—It was announced this evening that Mr. Joseph Medill will assume the editorial control of the Chicago Tribune, he having purchased from Mr. White enough shares of the Tribune stock to give him (added to what he before owned) more than half of the stock. Mr. White, who has heretofore held the position now assumed by Mr. Medill, will make a journey to Europe and not resume his connection with the Tribune hereafter, just merely holding the small portion of stock in connection with agent of the Associated Press. This evening Mr. Medill states that he will run the paper as an independent Reform journal. He was one of the charter members of the party, and has never wavered in its allegiance. He believes anything that is wrong in the party can be rectified inside the party, but is of the firm belief that the Republican party should continue to control the country. The paper will resume the position it occupied before his influence in its management ceased, four years ago, when it was the exponent of the Republican party. Mr. Medill will enter on his duties on November 9th, and proposes to continue in the position the remainder of his life.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 30.—The Gazette to-morrow, will publish a letter from President Grant written May, 1872, which speaks of his previous nominations in a way that shows his position on the third term. He says: "I believe I can say with truth I never entertained a thought calculated to produce action by the Republican party in favor of my promotion over that of any other man in who he might be their choice. He would, he says, make any sacrifice for the success of the Republican party as long as he could be of any service to the party, and would do his duty conscientiously."

CINCINNATI, Oct. 30.—A special from Hartford City, Indiana, says: "There is a terrible fire raging in the woods just south of here, fully four miles in length, and a heavy wind is blowing it along the track of the Fort Wayne, Muncie & Cincinnati railroad."

A Dayton special says the woods and fields between Union City and Greenville, and Dodson and Greenville, are on fire in many places, hundreds of acres being covered with flames. In the forests, the flames have climbed to the tops of the highest trees, and present a terribly grand spectacle at night. Forest fires are also raging in the vicinity of Oxford, Logan, Crestline, New Lexington, Cambridge, Kenton, Ironton, Bellfontaine, Delaware and Rushville, Indiana, and Russell, Kentucky. There is a great scarcity of water at all these points.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 30.—Forest fires are raging from Bainbridge to Booneville, Ross county, Ohio, a distance of six miles. A Gazette special reports the fires as bad on the Cleveland, Sandusky & Columbus Railway, being worst at Canton, Forest, Bellfontaine and Urbana. A high wind to-night increases the devastation and danger.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Col. I. Vodge, commanding the first artillery at Charleston, writes that as yellow fever is so prevalent there he has removed the troops under his command from Charleston to Summerville.

At the Cabinet meeting, Secretaries Bristow and Delano, Postmaster General Jewell, Attorney General Williams, and Assistant Secretary Caldwell, who represented the State Department, were present, Robeson and Belknap are absent from the city.

BLOOMINGTON, Oct. 30.—Mr. Miner, prohibition candidate for Congress in the Thirtieth District has withdrawn. The contest is now between Gen. McNulta, Republican, and Stevenson, the Independent-Reform and Democratic candidate. McNulta's prospects are excellent.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

Fresh oysters at Imboden's. Big overcoats and scarfs are on. Everybody should go and see them. Travel by rail is quite brisk for the season of the year. Choice butter at Jack & Son. Corn-shucking is the popular pastime in the country these days. Corn is selling on the street cents a bushel. A lively trade is now going all sorts of gloves. Buy your sugar and syrups of Pratt & Son. Many mechanics in this city preparing for a grand hunt-and-bust on Thanksgiving day. Overcoats and furs are in these days. Ice an eighth of an inch thick on small bodies of water in places last night. A large number of farmers who maturely cribbed their corn have been obliged to take it out to prevent moulding. New wheat flour at Nelson's. The ice-man's occupation is gone for this season; people be take kindly to warm beverages cool days. The forms and ceremonies of make much of the fool who wears a scarlet necktie and parts his hair middle. Choice Java coffee and superb tea at Kitchen's. Decatur women must wear a amount of false hair. At least five dressers make their living by the dressing business. Oh! but also was mad, when he dress rubbed against that greasy barrel on the sidewalk yesterday, said nothing—but such a look! W. H. Reeme, at his store on railroad on North Water street, full line of choice groceries which is selling at bottom prices. Choice ter always on hand. All the prisoners confined in county jail gain in flesh during imprisonment. This shows that Jennings furnishes them first-rate. All improvements for the year are now about at an end. This weather is a hindrance to all improvements. All grades of writing paper at L. J. Davis & Co.'s stationery establishment. Eggs are advancing in price, and at present at 25 cents per dozen. This is occasioned by the approach of the holidays. Mrs. M. L. Cain is advertising give public readings at the opera in Paris, on Tuesday evening of week. She will doubtless give the island a rare literary treat. J. Ulrich & Co. have a full line all the best brands of coffee. The girls and boys are devising series of amusements for their entertainment during the coming winter. T. good, provided they get up some that don't make fools of themselves. Hunters go out every day now, bundled up, and determined on some game. With good fortification against cold they start out, hoping success, but before the day is half gone, till hopes subside, and they feel thankful if they make home without freezing. For choice fine cut, smoking chewing tobacco, go to Andy Kop. Large numbers of mechanics artisans who have been out of employment during the past season now work by going into the country and playing for work at corn-shucking. Demand for farm hands is now far in advance of the supply, and all work can get it now without difficulty. "Benzine" crippled several last night so that they couldn't run, but what fence posts and other stony objects overtook them. One attempted to pull the posts from the water tank on East Main street, luckily for the street sprinkler failed his endeavor. That superb stock of boots and shoes at V. Barber & Co.'s, is attracting attention and excites the admiration all who take the pains to examine. Such an endless variety of women's children's shoes and slippers is seldom seen. Their stock of goods for men wear is always complete and full. 29-1&w-lw

The rough weather of the past days has had the effect to live up coal and stove trade wonderfully. We understand that coal dealers hardly able enough to supply the demand. Everybody should lay in a stock now, so as not to be obliged to bother with it after the roads get icy. This is a matter of economy as convenience, as the price will probably be higher when the roads get icy.
